

Free Performances & Workshops at Snowy Hydro Discovery Centre

No	Time	Act	Description
1	9:00am	MAGIC Drums	Performance & Djembe Workshop conducted by Paul Mackay. Get in touch with your inner beats. Mind altering rhythm.
2	9:30	Lil G	12 year old rock & blues guitar protege. This young lady, with over 136K Facebook followers, is an amazing performer. Come and hear her play as well as hear her story. So much talent! She is in high demand in music festivals all around Australia.
3	10:00	Latin Collective	A 3-piece band featuring the music of Latin America. Just like being in Rio de Janeiro. Their music is full of the colour and joy of Central & South American.
4	10:30	Rodrigo Martin-Silva	Cajon Percussion Workshop (instruments provided). It's so easy to play the cajon , let Rodrigo show you how!
5	11:00	Charlotte Rose	Ukulele Workshop (instruments provided) – She is an ANBC busking champion and a regular featured artist in music festivals around Australia. Let's have fun!
6	11:30	Shalice	Creating Music with looping – Shane & Alice are an amazing duo from Albury. Creativity is their guiding star.
7	12:00	Steve Jackson	Vocal Workshop – Steve is a qualified vocal teacher and a singer with a lifetime of experience in the music industry. Steve is currently touring a highly successful Elton John Tribute Show to sellout audiences around NSW.
8	12:30pm	RIN-PA & A.YA	5-piece Japanese Dance & Drumming group. Performance & Workshop. Based in Melbourne these young ladies toured in France and England this year. Their exciting performances are a huge crowd favorite.
9	1:00	Syph	7-string Bass Wizardry. Looping workshop. An amazing display of music technology and creativity. Syph is from Queensland.
10	1:30	Lucey	This young rock band from Albury plays music of the 60s & 70s with their own unique high energy style.

Proudly sponsored by

